

The Offering

Sleep Token

And you are a garden, entwined with all
You are the silence on sacred shores
You've got diamonds for teeth, my love
So take a bite of me, just once, I want to
Turn the page once again, oh
Take a bite

This is a giving, an offering
In your favour, a sacrifice in your name
But I know you've got a taste
So just take a bite of me
Turn the page once again, oh

Give in again and let me lay
My arms belong around you
So take a bite, I want to know
I want to

Take a bite
Take a bite
