

Hunch

Sleeper

She's so small
Tiny and crushed up
Fifty four, the size of a child

Long pale hair
Her eyes are all red
She's got skin the color of bread

He's all bald
Crusty and oozing
Got six arms, lips like a frog

Great big hump
Tiny and hunched up
He can't speak, just barks like a dog

Don't come outside with those freak show
Eyes don't look at me with those freak show
Eyes, I'm not like you at all

Don't touch me
You must be crazy
I don't like the shape that you're in

The way you look
Reminds me of something
It's all because you're nothing like me

Don't come outside with your freak show
Eyes don't look at me with those freak show
Eyes just stay inside I'll feel safe

Don't come outside I'll feel safe
Don't visit me with your freak show
I'm not like you at all

All
All
All
