

You Got Me

Sleeper

You got me yeah
You got me yeah
Whenever you want me yeah
Whenever you want me yeah
You got me
You're not alone you got me
You know whenever you want me yeah
Whenever you want me yeah

I'll breath with you leave with you
When everyone else is gone
We'll leave a door open a glass broken
A perfume of rain on an ocean of calm

I'll drink like you think like you
When everyone else is wrong
We'll tear their seams open
A small token lying around
Like a bruise on their arms
Ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh

I'll stay with you all day with you
Whenever you're incomplete
I'll be a match for you a deep scratch
When your gravity's gone and your full of defeat

I'll lie with you a spy with you
Whenever you're on your own
I'll be around for you a clown for you
A cord you can pull
When you're falling too fast
