

Forget You Now

Sleeperstar

Breaking up is easy and I tell myself it doesn't hurt
The loss, the gap, the distance from my soul to you
I thought I needed freedom, I thought it wouldn't leave a mark
I shut out the lights and sounds, I feel the scars

Why can't I forget you now, get you now
Turn around and look me in the eyes
I will not give up on you
If you give us one more try, if you give us one more try

I wish that I had been there, I should've been a better man
I'm not afraid, it's just the way I've always been, oh
Say it isn't over, say you wanna take a chance
Cos I've always only loved you
And I wanna know, I gotta know

Cos I can't forget you now, get you now
Turn around and look me in the eyes
I will not give up on you
If you give us one more try, if you give us one more try

How can I forget you, get you now
Turn around to feel, to breathe again
I don't wanna lose you now,
This cannot be the end, this cannot be the end

Why can't I forget you now, get you now
Turn around and look me in the eyes
I will not give up on you
If you give this one more try

How can I forget you, get you now
Turn around to feel, to breathe again
I don't wanna lose you now,
This cannot be the end, this cannot be the end
