

All my days are dreams of sorrow
A never ending twist of fate
Between the knives, I see your face

I'll live forever
To hold you closer to me
I die a thousand times
All at once every time you leave

Tell me all your heart's desire
In my only, endless dream
I'd trade my life for you to see

That I'll live forever
To hold you closer to me
I die a thousand times
All at once every time you leave

All I wanted was you close to me
All I wanted was you close to me
Every time you leave
Separated by the
All I wanted was you close to me
Every time you leave
All I wanted was you close to me
All I wanted was you close to me
Every time you leave
Every time you leave

(Live forever
To hold you closer to me
I die a thousand times
All at once)
