Love Again

Sleeperstar

You can live your life like I'm not here
Buy new clothes and change your hair every year or two
You're always the same

Go on, believe the lies inside your head
Turn yourself into the saint that never was
You're always the same

Oh, there's a way
That we can love again
Be loved again
Oh we will never live this down

Oh, there's a way
That we can love again
Be loved again
Oh we will never live this down
We won't live this down

There are those who tell you, "you are fine"
Brave enough to weather any storm of mine
To the other side

You fail to see reason for my song
Standing here to say, I've been hear all along
Waiting on you

Oh, the pain, it carried me
Oh, the shame, you're gonna bury me
Oh, the pain, it carried me
Oh, the shame, you're gonna bury me
