

You were a broken heart
Innocent, smashed to pieces
Now I go through the ashes
To find what's left of me cause

I can't take it
Remember when we were more than a memory?
You won't say it
Now I've got nothin', now I've got nothin' to lose

I will get you back
I still want to try to make you mine
I will, I will
I will make you see
You belong to me
I'll make you see
I will get you back

I tried to drown you out
This city turned against me
Your face is all I see now
You know we're meant to be cause

I can't take it
Remember when we were more than a memory?
You won't say it
Now I've got nothin', now I've got nothin' to lose

I will get you back
I still want to try to make you mine
I will, I will
I will make you see
You belong to me
I'll make you see
I will get you back

Ooh
I will get you back
Cause I can't take it
Remember when we were more than a memory?
And you won't say, yeah

I will get you back
I still want to try to make you mine
I will, I will
I will make you see
You belong to me
I'll make you see
I will get you back
Ooh
I will get you back
Ooh
I will get you back
