

I close my eyes trusting you
With every desire to balance now

The air is perfect, tonight

The rain, like tears, falls upon my hands
Carry me
The rain, like tears, falls upon my hands

I close my eyes trusting you
With every desire to balance now

If I could take away the sorrows
Etched in you
I would, I would

The rain, like tears, falls upon my hands
Carry me
The rain, like tears, falls upon my hands
