

A Trophy Father Trophy Son

Sleeping with Sirens

Father, father tell me where have you been

It's been hell not having you here
I've been missing you so bad and you don't seem to care

When I go to sleep at night
your not there
When I go to sleep at night
Do you care?

Do you even miss us your bottles your mistress
I need to know
I need to know

Why are you walking away
Was it something I did dad
I made a mistake cause
I'm trying to deal with the pain
I don't understand it
Is this how it ends

I will try and understand (father, father, father)

Father, Father tell me
Tell me where are you now
It's been hell not having you Last thing I Heard you were You're Skipping town with no note telling where

When i go to sleep at night
your not there
When i go to sleep at night
do you care?

I need to know
I need to know

Why are you walking away
was it something I did dad
I made a mistake cause
I'm trying to deal with the pain
I don't understand it
Is this how it ends

Why are you running away
I don't understand it (Don't understand it)
Is this how it ends (This how it ends)

Why are you running away
Tell me please, tell me please
I need to know

Is this what you call a family x8

Been 7 years wishing that you'd drop the line but i carried the bottle on with you in my mind
But is this what you call a family
Is this what you call a family!
Family!

Why are you walking away
was it something i said dad
I made a mistake cause
I'm trying to deal with the pain

I don't understand it
is this how it ends

Why are you running away
I don't understand it
Is this how it ends

Why are you running away
Tell me please, Tell me please
I need to know

Is this what you call a family x5
