

Another Day

Sleeping with Sirens

What am I gonna do?
If I'm not fooling anyone but me?
What am I gonna say?
If I chose to leave it all and run away?

I guess I'll save it all
Save it for another day
I guess I'll let it go
Until I find another way

What if I run away?
Pack up all my dreams and leave today
How am I gonna feel?
With my past behind me, my soul behind the wheel

Could try to find a reason
Try to find a reason to stay
And I guess I'll save it all
Save it for another day

Lights out, sun is coming up
Lately, I'm not sleeping much
Oh, I'm not ready to come home
Follow stars and traffic lights
Maybe one day I'll get it right
Oh, I'm not ready to come home

Maybe it's time I quit this mess I'm in
Finally get it straight

Save it for another day
Save it for another day
I guess I'll save it all
Save it for another day
