

Break Me Down

Sleeping with Sirens

You won't break me down
I'm not afraid
To try and feel something that's real
I'm not ashamed
You won't break me down

The last two years of my life are so filled with regret
Try to fool myself, but I'll never forget
The time I lost, the pain I've found
But when it's time to fight, you need to stand your ground

Smoke in my lungs
There's a fire in my heart (Fire in my heart)
And when it's all said and done
You won't break me

You won't break me down
I'm not afraid
To try and feel something that's real
I'm not ashamed
You won't break me
When all hope is gone
I'm stronger than I've been before
I'm not afraid
You won't break me down

All the drugs and the fame don't matter at all
So I swim in the bottle, it makes me feel small
To drown out my demons, I still hear them call
On and on and on, my back's against the wall

I'm just being honest
I'm trying my best (I'm trying my best)
And when it's all said and done
You won't break me

You won't break me down
I'm not afraid
To try and feel something that's real
I'm not ashamed
You won't break me
When all hope is gone
I'm stronger than I've been before
I'm not afraid
You won't break me down

Down!

There's smoke in my lungs
There's a fire in my heart
And when it's all said and done
You won't break me
You won't break me down!
Down!
You won't break me down!

You won't break me down

I'm not afraid
To try and feel something that's real
I'm not ashamed
You won't break me
When all hope is gone
I'm stronger than I've been before
I'm not afraid
You won't break me down

Yeah!
