

Broken Mirrors

Sleeping with Sirens

Time is never on our side
It flies, it keeps going, going, going by Decide, how will you live your life?
Tonight, this is do or, do or, do or die

You don't know who you are
Who you really are

Broken mirrors on the wall
Hating everything I see
Smash the pieces when they fall
I won't let it bury me
Break the past, let it shatter
Let it fall down at my feet
Broken mirrors on the wall
Reflecting every, everything I see
Broken mirrors
Broken mirrors

Fate, it's a dangerous game
It makes you do crazy, crazy, crazy things
Decide, how to live your life
Tonight, this is do or, do or, do or die

You don't know who you are
Who you really are

Broken mirrors on the wall
Hating everything I see
Smash the pieces when they fall
I won't let it bury me
Break the past, let it shatter
Let it fall down at my feet
Broken mirrors on the wall
Reflecting every, everything I see

Don't be sorry
You've come too far
Do your best
This could be a brand new start
Chase your demons
You'll be free
Make your reflection something for the world to see

Broken mirrors on the wall
Hating everything I see
Smash the pieces when they fall
I won't let it bury me
Break the past, let it shatter
Let it fall down at my feet
Broken mirrors on the wall
Reflecting every, everything I see
Broken mirrors
Smash the pieces
Break the past, let it shatter

Reflecting every, everything I see
Broken mirrors
Broken mirrors
