Sleeping with Sirens

Grand Rapids, Michigan this is my home and I'm glad to be back home Ohh, woo, uhh
I lose my voice on the stage so now I sound like a grandpa with old balls, oh h noo, oh noo
(Jesse: Old Balls? Kellin: Yea)
But I see so many pretty faces and I want to get to know them all so maybe that hat I'll call ya
Can I call you sometime, Jesse? (Jesse: yea) Maybe if my hair's a little bit dryer and I don't sound like an old man with old balls
Chorus, my friends are your friends and we can be friends together You're my friends, you're my friends no matter what the weather, no matter what the weather
You're my friends, we're all friends and we can be friends together We're all friends, we're all friends no matter what the weather's like Verse two, what's up Jess? (Jesse: Chillin') Just chillin' Uh, uh, uh, yo, yo, yo, yo
I read an article one time that said I sound like Justin Beiber Mixed with a girl, mixed with a bitch actually Well that's the shit actually 'cos Justin Beiber makes a whole lot of money and I don't make none, but maybe one or two or three fricken dollars and that's all I can buy myself a big mac burger, damn
I'm trying to do the best I can with my best friends in this van we try to travel around the place and do everything that we can Yo, 'cos from here to there to everywhere I hope you know that we love ya Ah, from the bottom of my heart, we love ya, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
'cos your friends are my friends and we can be friends together I said, your friends are my friends no matter what the weather, no matter what the weather
'cos my friends are your friends and we can be friends together Because you're all friends, you're my friends no matter what the weather's like like
Oh, oh, break it down for me, give me something a little soulful Uh, uh, a little faster, pick it up a little bit Yo, yo, alright something steady Jesse (Jesse: No, this is steady) Uh, yo, yo, yo, yo, yo, uh, uh, yo, yo, yo, yo Back side parking lot everybody thinks it's real damn hot and it's true Back side parking lot everybody thinks it's real damn hot Truthfully, yo, I swear that I'm probably 35 pounds and now I weigh 15 pounds I gotta go home and eat something so I can fill my stomach back up with something like
Sounds and everybody knows that's how the story goes It's like one for the money, what, two for the show, we beatin' it up so everybody wants some we not givin' a what, uh So what you want not much just a little bit of a hunch everybody want to spit it but they can't touch me in this, this, this, this time we go, we go And we can be friends together because you're my friends, we're all friends no matter what the weather, no matter what the weather My friends are your friends no matter what the weather's like Your friends are my friends no matter what the weather's like Beatbox
Uh, drop it out, drop it out like...
Uh, uh, uh, uh, uh, uh, uh, uh, uh, uh (Jesse: Last chorus)
Let me try, wait, wait, wait, wait, wait...

This one's for you, this one's for me, this one's for everybody Yeah, so put a middle finger in the air if you don't like what we do we don' t care
Ayyye, this one's for everybody Keep talkin' that shit, we'll shit be legit, no matter what, no matter what
'cos my friends are your friends and we can be friends together Because your friends are my friends no matter what the weather, no matter wh at the weather
'cos my friends are your friends no matter what the weather's like
'cos we're friends, we're friends, we're friends
