

Left Alone

Sleeping with Sirens

There's nothing really left to say
And I don't need you to explain
We don't need those light
So tired of living in the past
So if we're gonna make it last
We should leave it all behind
I'd rather you lie
Than throw it all away

How deep do you wanna go?
Don't you know that some things
Are better left alone?
How deep do you wanna go?
Don't you know that some things
Are better left alone?
They're better left alone

I think we may have gone too far
Losing sight of who we are
How do we get back (How do we get back)
To a time when it was so easy?
Cause I need you and you need me
Oh, what happened to that? (Whoa)
I'd rather you lie
Than throw it all away

How deep do you wanna go?
Don't you know that some things
Are better left alone?
How deep (How deep)
Do you want to go?
Don't you know that some things
Are better left alone?
They're better left alone

How deep do you wanna go?
Don't you know that some things
Are better left alone? (Better left, better left)
How deep (How deep)
Do you wanna go? (Do you wanna go?)
Don't you know that some things
Are better left alone?
They're better left alone

(Whoa, ooh-oh-oh-oh)
(Whoa, ooh-oh-oh)
Better left alone
(Whoa, ooh-oh-oh-oh)
(Whoa, ooh-oh-oh)
Better left alone
(Whoa, ooh-oh-oh-oh)
(Whoa, ooh-oh-oh)

(Whoa, ooh-oh-oh-oh)
(Whoa, ooh-oh-oh)
