Never Enough

Sleeping with Sirens

It's time to wake up, your life has begun
But if I had my own way, I'd shoot down the sun
Cause I don't fuck with anyone, I can't be fake like everyone
So tell me what does it take? Give me the secret
If I told you the truth would you believe it?
Am I the only one to see the monster I've become?

You don't know what you got 'til it's gone
Never knowing why until it's all done
There must be something more to believe
But it's never enough, never enough for me

It's time to get up, I've been down for so long
Get me out of my head, I can't do this alone
Feels like the walls are closing in
I can't keep going on like this
How did I end up this way? Give me a reason
Give me something to take to stop the bleeding
Am I the only one to see the monster I've become?

You don't know what you got 'til it's gone
Never knowing why until it's all done
There must be something more to believe
But it's never enough, never enough for me

If we could rule the world how would we make it?
The best is yet to come, if we can face it
We're always on our own, don't you see?
It was never enough, never enough for me
Never enough, never enough for me

Maybe the pain was here just to push me forward
If I could look inside and somehow find the courage
I can't keep running away to live these fucked up fantasies
Now I'm turned around, I'm looking in the mirror
Life is funny and the pain will make it clearer
So I'm ripping out my heart for everyone to see

You don't know what you got 'til it's gone
Never knowing why until it's all done
There must be something more to believe
But it's never enough, never enough for me

If we could rule the world how would we make it?
The best is yet to come, if we can face it
We're always on our own, don't you see?
It was never enough, never enough for me
