Sleepy Hallow

I, I got two Glocks and they both nines
Do they love me, love me, now I'm gettin' mixed signs
(Great John on the beat, by the way)
Look

I, I got two Glocks and they both nines
Do they love me, love me? Now I'm gettin' mixed signs
I'm ten toes 'til I go, never switch sides
I call you bro, you don't owe, you can have mine, huh
Heard that bitch done broke your heart, bro get a new one, huh
Heard them niggas out here up and got some news guns, huh
Why you always feel like you gotta prove somethin', huh?
You don't ever tell, you gon' do the time for it, huh

Lil' homie do your thing
You don't gotta be with gang
You could still stay up in your own lane
That's what niggas never told us
They try to fold us
Only thing we had was the dream that they sold us
The pain ain't light
Perky for the night
Codeine in my Sprite, got me feelin' real nice
I ain't tryna fall in love, I might die with no wife
And now I wanna beat the nigga that done make you cried
Get lit, I'm with the guys
So you don't wanna try
Lil' nigga I'm a savage, you can see it in my eyes
Get lit, I'm with the guys
So you don't wanna try
Lil' nigga I'm a savage, you can see it in my eyes, look

I, I got two Glocks and they both nines
Do they love me, love me? Now I'm gettin' mixed signs
I'm ten toes 'til I go, never switch sides
I call you bro, you don't owe, you can have mine, huh
Look, look, I got two Glocks and they both nines
Do they love me, love me? Now I'm gettin' mixed signs
I'm ten toes 'til I go, never switch sides
I call you bro, you don't owe, you can have mine, huh

I know trust get you killed, love get you hurt
And bein' real makin' niggas wanna throw dust
Started ballin' like the Spurs
I shit on every verse
Now they gon' show me love when I pull up on the curb
Lil' CIG with the Glock, everybody gettin' served
And we gon' throw shots, I ain't talking no words
And it's fuck how you feel, we gon' hit 'em where it hurt
It's kill or be killed, boy you better move first
I feel better off a pill, it ain't good but it work, uh
It ain't good but it work
I feel better off a pill, it ain't good but it work, uh
It ain't good but it work, uh

I, I got two Glocks and they both nines
Do they love me, love me? Now I'm gettin' mixed signs

I'm ten toes 'til I go, never switch sides
I call you bro, you don't owe, you can have mine, huh
I got two Glocks and they both nines
