

Belong

slenderbodies

Goddamn, I didn't see it
When you lived here all your life, but did you mean it
And I as well, I know what greed is
But it's hard sometimes to breathe in on the ceilings

Dream of palaces and countrysides
All I want, want, want
Is to wake up with the morning light
Laughing all along
Break away from all the city lights
Hiding in the dark
'Cause you don't belong
Where you don't belong
Yeah I don't belong

No I don't belong
No I don't belong
No I don't belong
No I don't belong
Yeah, yeah

I'm blessed, I'll believe it
When they tell me I'm here for a reason
Hold on another season
Couple minutes back and forth then we'll be leaving

To our palaces and countrysides
All I want, want, want
Is to wake up with the morning light
Laughing all along
Break away from all the city lights
Hiding in the dark
'Cause you don't belong
Where you don't belong
Yeah I don't belong

No I don't belong
No I don't belong
No I don't belong
No I don't belong
No, no

It's just a feeling
Just a feeling
It's just a feeling
Just a feeling
It's just a feeling
Just a feeling
It's just a feeling
Just a feeling

Dream of palaces and countrysides
All I want, want, want
Is to wake up with the morning light
Laughing all along
Break away from all the city lights
Hiding in the dark

'Cause you don't belong
Where you don't belong
Yeah I don't belong

No I don't belong
No I don't belong
No I don't belong
No I don't belong
Yeah
