

Departure

slenderbodies

Heard you found the door
You've been there before
Now it's time for you to go away from me
Sentimental, sure
Reaching eighty-four
Oh, I don't want to lose what you made of me

"Eighteen, oh the finest"
Made me think about it
I didn't know you wanted
Didn't know you wanted

With every try, each expression
In spite the light in my reflection
With such a life, I'm sad to see
Your night, no

It's funny how this seems to be the way to end it
It's funny how this seems to be the way to end it
It's funny how this seems to be the way to end it
It's funny how this seems to be the way

(Now fly)
It's funny how this seems to be the way to end it
(You're lost in paradise)
It's funny how this seems to be the way to end it
(Now fly)
It's funny how this seems to be the way to end it
(You're lost in paradise)
It's funny how this seems to be the way
(Now fly)
It's funny how this seems to be the way to end it
(You're lost in paradise)
It's funny how this seems to be the way to end it
(Now fly)
It's funny how this seems to be the way to end it
(You're lost in paradise)
It's funny how this seems to be the way
(Now fly)
It's funny how this seems to be the way to end it
(You're lost in paradise)
It's funny how this seems to be the way to end it
(Now fly)
It's funny how this seems to be the way to end it
(You're lost in paradise)
It's funny how this seems to be the way to end it
