

Tangled Up

slenderbodies

Nuisance, blue-eyed
Hold it, another night
It's too late, it's too right
All in, paradise
Cupid's, gone blind
Watching, mesmerized
I slow down, you're paralyzed
So hold mine

Oily, skin-tight
Goosebumps, shiver light
Without you, it's cold out
I won't lie, I won't let up
There's no wrong, at these heights
So know that, it's just fine
We're losing, daylight
There's no time, but it's alright

We'll still end up

Tangled up between the folds
Tangled up between—
I'm tangled up between the folds
Tangled up
Tangled up between the folds
Tangled up between—
I'm tangled up between the folds
Tangled up
Tangled up between the folds
Tangled up between—
I'm tangled up between the folds
Tangled up
Tangled up between the folds
Tangled up between—
I'm tangled up between the folds
Tangled up

Blushing, red skin
Tingle to the touch, now let me in Moving, you and I
Just keep me, satisfied
There's no wrong, at these heights
So know that, it's just fine
We're losing, daylight
There's no time, but it's alright

We'll still end up
We'll still end up

Tangled up between the folds
Tangled up between—
I'm tangled up between the folds
Tangled up
Tangled up between the folds
Tangled up between—
I'm tangled up between the folds
Tangled up

Tangled up between the folds
Tangled up between—
I'm tangled up between the folds
Tangled up
Tangled up between the folds
Tangled up between—
I'm tangled up between the folds
Tangled up
[Repeat to fade out]
