

Good Intentions

Slick Shoes

Why do I do things that hurt you?
Intentions start out good, but end up twisted.
All of the time I fall away then come running back when hurt.
You open your scarred hands to catch me when I fall.
Every time it happens you're right there.
I could never repay my debt, but you don't ask me to.
That is why I love you.
Why must my heart be so corrupt when I can't stand it?
You show your favor on me anyway.
Teach me to obey.
You open you scarred hands to catch me when I fall.
Every time it happens you're right there.
I could never repay my debt, but you don't ask me to.
That is why love you.
