

I Forget the Words

Slick Shoes

Sometimes I lose myself, I'm caught up in the mind. My misused panic room, locking in all it once held outside Now take it easy. Move In slowly. I won't let this pass me by The place I find myself seems always to subside. Forgotten winter garden, in or out lost through walls built to high

Now take it easy. Move in slowly. I won't let this pass me by.
I'm safer in your eyes
Just remind me to take it slowly
We don't need to fix this all tonight. Lend me your ear and share your song, and stay with me so I can sing along
