

Sleep In

Slick Shoes

When I watch you sleep
I am taken from the place I stand
Taken to a place where no cares
I never thought I could be so lucky to be with you
Always knew
Afraid it would end
When I wake up in the morning
And you are still next to me
I just thought to which I woke a dream
I can't believe it's better than I thought it could be
You'll always mean everything
And now whoa oh whoa
I don't need to worry
I am figured out whoa oh whoa
I don't need to worry
I have figured you
Take all my worries
They just don't matter to me
You take all my worries
They just don't matter to me
You take all my worries
They just don't matter to me
You take all my worries
They just don't matter to me
