

The Worlds Were Mine

Slick Shoes

Falling, catching, breathing, holding on
My only wish, please stay here longer
Your body against mine
Our wait is almost over

Let it all just melt away
There're no distractions
Let it all just melt away
Becoming one light

You know the words before I say them
Actions written together

Let it all just melt away
There're no distractions
Let it all just melt away
Becoming one light

Love of my youth, I will rejoice with you
