

Our Wedding Waltz

Slim Dusty

Remember the day when we met,
[Joy}
Remember the night we were wed,
Couples were swinging
The old home was ringing
Seems I remember yet
An old time accordian,
And the fiddle was playing three quarter
I held your hand with the new wedding band
While Nelly sang Alan Water
And even now when we're older, dear,
I still hold a sweet memory,
Of our wedding ball and the bridal waltz,
They played for you and me.

I gave my love, dear, to you,
You stole my heart somehow,
Dancers were swaying
A fiddle was playing,
Waltzes forgotten now,
An old time accordian
And the fiddle was playin' three quarter
I held your hand with the new wedding band
While Nelly sang Alan Water
And even now when we're older, dear,
I still hold a sweet memory,
Of our wedding ball and the bridal waltz
They played for you and me.
