

I'll Do as Much for You Someday

Slim Whitman

Will you try and see my old sweetheart who lives across the way
I'll do as much for you someday
There's no reason why a love like ours should ever go astray
I'll do as much for you someday

I call her but she's never home she returns my mail
I try my best to see her but all my efforts fail Maybe you can have a talk with her and touch things up okay
I'll do as much for you someday
[piano - steel]
Somebody told a story and I think it hurt her pride
If she would only listen I'd prove somebody lied Tell her she's my one and only one it's always been that way
I'll do as much for you someday
