

My Heart Is Broken in Three

Slim Whitman

My heart is broken in three
I love three girls secretly
A blonde, a brunette, or redhead I could wed
But which one is it to be?
Oh gee, my heart is broken in three

I had my fortune told, I saw my life unfold
The gypsy said you have three loves
All yours to have and to hold

But this she didn't tell me
Which lover it is to be
I can't untangle this sweetheart triangle
Which one was made just for me?

Oh gee, my heart is broken in three

I had my fortune told, I saw my life unfold
The gypsy said you have three loves
All yours to have and to hold

But this she didn't tell me
Which lover it is to be
I can't untangle this sweetheart triangle
Which one was made just for me?
Oh gee, my heart is broken in three
