

34 Degrees

Slim

Yeah

I bring dinners to the point yeah [?]
Since a little man I've always had 'em packs for sell
I ain't sitting talking shit that I cannot tell
On interviews and podcasts like yeah I was the man as well
I told my bro let's grind but he had a girl
He went a worked a 9 to 5 me I went to jail
A man sold me a dream that I couldn't sell
I doubled back for my cash and yeah I kept the packs as well
Where I'm from you gotta watch what you say
One wrong look in here I get you chopped in your face
Thought he was my darg we weren't locked into place
You can't sit on no fence G it's not for debate
I got a bro I ain't spoke to in time over change
Can forget about the P's but you can't violate
I came home feeling like my minds not the same
I had a realization that I've been grinding for days yeah
I live a life that they try to portray
I got stress to my girl, there's no time to debate
I only get peace when I'm flying on a plane
But my biggest issue right now is trying to exchange
All the cash that I'm getting
I take a risk I ain't betting
You gotta save your money give you leverage
You see I had to put in work for a beverage
Had me outside with testers
Putting work in my denims
Yeah it's 34 degrees off the plane now I'm sweating
I ain't buying postcards it's packs that I'm sending
I don't speak on socials they wouldn't get the message
Nah I see a man in person I'm the type to go and check him
People take the piss everyday when you let them
I don't care about the ends or what gang that you're repping
I'm on a beach just somewhere refreshing
With a vibe and she's squeezing fresh lime on the melon
I never held a stop for 12 months I was blending
A 100 down motorway with money in the venting
Everything I say is past tense not the present
Cos I can see how they're giving out a sentence
I can see from a mile away there negative intentions
It's us round here that's been causing all the tension
It's them kinda guys that want a mention
You can't mix the two type of people cos I'm separate levels
