

I'm living in a dead man's shoes
Stolen coat, not much hope
With these Cardiac Blues
And I keep forgetting
I'm not a god like you
Trivialize a mirror image of life
I won't trouble you, I'm just trouble
And now, now, now, now, now
We don't have to leave it alone
We don't even have to be alone
We just have to think we're alone
So everybody leave us alone

I don't serve my time
'Cause time don't tell
The grim is behind me
I'm always alone with myself
Come and lead me own
Come and see me on
Come and feed me on
The shit that we all be on

I'm not a god like you
I'm not a god like you, yeah

I'm running in a dead man's shoes
Sacrilege and broken cartilage
I'm beaten and bruised
And I keep forgetting to forget
The back is always front
The way is always shot
The one is always two
I'm not a god
The back is always front
The way is always shot
The one is always two
I'm not a god like you

Woah
I'm living in a dead man's shoes
I'm living in a dead man's shoes
