Adderall

Slipknot

Shallow graves and deepest fears
No one tells me why I'm here
Leather straps on stapled eyes
Gotta scream to cut your ties
Can't subtract from Adderall
Pull you in before you fall
Not as sweet as it appears...
Someone tell me why I'm here

Ooh, you know I'm gone
Ooh, you go- I'm onto you now

All they want is your control
For the Bible scares me so
Smell the ones who came here last
Must've lost the game too fast
We don't read between the lines
Cut too deep to see the signs
Watch me as my blood runs cold-
Now your Bible can take hold

Ooh, you know I'm gone
Ooh, you go- I'm onto you now
Ooh, you know I'm gone
Ooh, you go- I'm onto you now
I'm onto you

Which side do I want to be
This side's got a hold on me
Don't try this home for me now
(Slide away from thoughts and prayers the easy way)
Which side do I want to be?
This side's got a hold on me
Don't try this home for me now
(Slide away from thoughts and prayers the easy way)

Ooh, you go... I'm onto you now...
Ooh, you go... I'm onto you now...
