

Adele

Sloan

Adele, you'll always have a place in my heart
Although I could never seem to get that out
But now that time's gone by I can remember
How you walked away from me, never to look back

Adele, you'll always have a place in my heart
Although I could never seem to get that out
Now that time's gone by I can remember
How you walked away from me, never to look back

La, la, la, la
La, la, la, la

Adele, you'll always have a place in my heart
Although I could never seem to get that out
But now that time's gone by I can remember
How you walked away from me, never to look back

Away, away
Ooh
