

Backstabbin'

Sloan

Oh it's one thing
Then another thing
Building up into a mountain of annoying
You keep scratching, you're unattractive
A shinin' light on everything that I am lacking

Then you turn around and give me that look, yeah
Backstabbin' with a positive hook, yeah
Then you turn around and give me that look, yeah
And there's nothing I can say about it

Backstabbin', yeah backstabbin'
Backstabbin', yeah backstabbin'

Change of pitch
Flick the switch
Button all the buttons

Backstabbin', yeah backstabbin'

It's something new
From the truth
Everything for nothing

Backstabbin', yeah

Then you turn around and give me that look, yeah
Backstabbin' with a positive hook, yeah
Then you turn around and give me that look, yeah
And there's nothing I can say about it

Backstabbin', back-backstabbin'

Oh it's one thing
Then another thing
Building up into a mountain of annoying
You keep scratching, you're unattractive
A shinin' light on everything that I am lacking

Then you turn around and give me that look, yeah
Backstabbin' with a positive hook, yeah

Then you turn around and give me that look, yeah
Backstabbin' with a positive hook, yeah
Then you turn around and give me that look, yeah

Backstabbin', yeah backstabbin'
