

Congratulations

Sloan

Congratulations are in order for
Someone who can draw a line to
The generation waiting at the door
Impatiently for some to pass through

Do you have some questions?
Where they hanging their collections?
Ooh, do you have more questions?

Imagination should be paramount
The state of the subject is key
Evaluation gives the rough amount
Depending on it's scarcity

Do you have some questions?
Do you have any recollection?
Ooh, do you have more questions?
What's the state of their relations?
Death, divorce, no explanation
Overheard in conversation

From the grave, to a gavel to the gallery
Resulting in a one or two years salary
Look a little closer, is it a forgery?
Call the authorities

The speculation leads to civil war
For this paint, paper and glue
Preservation keeps an open door
Allowing for us to pass through

Do you have some questions?
Do you have any recollection?
Ooh, do you have more questions?
What's the state of their relations?
Death, divorce, no explanation

Congratulations are in order for
Someone who can draw a line too
