

It Is Never

Sloan

I wrote it all down for you to read
In a letter that you returned
I took the time to make it rhyme
In a language that you never learned

So now you walk among the dead and buried
Drown slowly
And wash yourself all over my shores

And I made a sound
And then everyone looked around at me
I was trying to let you know
It was time for us to go

So now you walk among the dead and buried
Drown slowly
And wash yourself all over my shores

You can change the past
But it comes right back
And it is never gonna let you go
Through everything you still failed me
And it is never gonna let you go
It wraps around and it drags you down
And it is never gonna let you go
Until you
