

Pillow Fight

Sloan

If you start a pillow fight
I don't wanna get involved
You're so restless
I need my rest
Just please leave me alone
This event will go unresolved
As have all the rest
Save your feathers
I'm so drowsy
So I'm saving you my breath

'Cause I've been thinking about it lately
I know I've been put to the test
'Cause I've been thinking about you lately

You keep a journal
Everybody knows my thoughts sit in my hear
If I put mine down in words
I couldn't bear to have them read
I never have thing to say and I can't make up my mind
That's my excuse right now
It's my usual line

But I've been thinking about it lately
I feel I've been wasting your time
But I've been thinking about you lately

It's the hardest thing to do
Just getting back at you
Not something I want to do
Just tell me when you're through
It's the hardest thing to do
Just getting back at you
Not something I want to do
Just getting back at you

If you start a pillow
I'll just thank my lucky stars
If I remember to close my door
Instead of leaving it ajar
This event will go unresolved
As have all the rest
Save your feathers
I'm so drowsy
So I'm saving you my breath

But I've been thinking about it lately
I know I'm dumb sometimes
But I've been thinking about you lately
I know I'm dumb sometimes
But I've been thinking about it lately
I know I'm dumb sometimes
But I've been thinking about you
