

So Far Down

Sloan

Heard you got a new boyfriend

I heard you got a new boyfriend
You're breaking the old trend
'Cause I don't have what you need

You heard I got a new girlfriend
I'm starting a new trend
'Cause she seems to like me

Wake up from a dream
And realize that things
Aren't what they seem

I got something to live for
A reason to do more
And everything is alright

I got something to live for
Not like it was before
And I'm feeling alright

Then down
So far down
So far down
Down, so far down
But everything is alright

I heard you got a new boyfriend
You're starting a new trend
'Cause I don't have what you need

I got something to live for
A reason to do more
But no one ever needs me
Me, me, me, me

Far down
So far, so far down
So far, so far down
So far, so far down
So far, so far down
So far, so far down

Heard you got a new boyfriend
Heard you got a new boyfriend
Heard you got a new boyfriend
Heard you got a new boyfriend
