

Prayer

Sloppy Jane

I promise to stop holding
To stop holding on
But only if there's something
When the pain is gone

Pray for me, Heavenly
I am staring at the Sun
There was a time when I prayed for sleep
But now I pray for sedation
Pray for me, Heavenly
I do not know anything but the truth
Pray for me, Heavenly
And in my dreams I will come and visit you
In my dreams I will come visit you

So I try to find forgiveness
I scrape the water from my bones
But my tongue keeps sticking to it
Because my God, he was so cold

Pray for me, Heavenly
I am staring at the Sun
There was a time, when I prayed for sleep
But now I pray for sedation
Pray for me, Heavenly
I do not know anything but the truth
Pray for me, Heavenly
And in my dreams I will come visit you
In my dreams I will come visit you

Oh-oh!

It's phantom limb, it's phantom limb
And when he's gone, it's phantom him
It's phantom him, it's phantom limb
And when he's gone, it's phantom him
It's phantom limb, it's phantom limb
And when he's gone, it's phantom him
