

7:30 Am

Slothrust

(Kind of)

I'm gonna leave you anyway
I'm gonna leave you anyway
I'm gonna leave you anyway
You're gonna walk right out that door
You're gonna walk right out that door
I'm gonna watch you walk away

I want my face to be untouched
I want my face to be untouched
I don't want nobody's mark
I want to sleep and dream alone
I want to sleep and dream alone
I want to fade into the dark

Carve it all up
You'll find nothing
To place upon your plate
Have no logic
Too much reason
It's an admirable trait

Carbonated feelings bubble up
Every morning when I wake
Up-chuck, suck up
Best take your vitamins
I'm doing what I can for my body's sake
I'm doing what I can for my body's sake
