Slothrust

I'm a man, I'm a machine
Cut me as deep as you want
I won't feel anything
I'm alone in my mind
I take it as it comes
I don't look, I don't find
I take it as it comes
I don't look, I don't find

I'll cut that tree down by myself
Build you a house to live in with somebody else
Tell it twice, maybe more
I am confident I've heard it all before
Got dealt a hand and rolled the dice
Snake eyes everytime
It comes as no surprise
Snake eyes everytime
It comes as no surprise

I could lay down on the ground
'Cause I'm some parts of everything around
I'm a man, I'm a machine
My hands are rhino skin
My eyes are cold and mean
I'm alone, but I don't mind
I feel better when my flaws aren't underlined
Yeah, I feel better when my flaws aren't underlined
