

I don't know what I'm still doing here
Yet another full moon that I missed this year
Do you miss me, dear?
Can't be this alone and stay so clear
Wanna be an astronaut and get out of here
'Cause I miss you, dear
So, be honest

Are you not where you said that you've been?
Getting older but I still play pretend
I don't want this to end
I don't want this

I can tell that there's someone else
C'mon, tell me, I can take it well
It's just too bad I fell
I'll be honest

I know I'm not where I said that I've been
Getting older but I still play pretend
I don't want this to end
I'm stuck in it again, again, again, again
Again, again, again, again...

Are you not where you've said that you've been?
Getting older but I still play pretend
I don't want this to end
I don't want this to end
I don't want this to end
No, I don't want this
