

Entrust me to
To take, to take, to take
On players of the new rules

I can't seem to break the fence
Overacted in all my plans
I won't think to change the pace
Runnin' on the same mistakes
I can't seem to break the fence
Overacted in all my plans
I won't think to change the pace
Running on the same mistakes

I'll stay from fools
If it, if it
If it keeps me comfortable

I can't seem to break the fence
Overacted in all my plans
I won't think to change the pace
Runnin' on the same mistakes
I can't seem to break the fence
Overacted in all my plans
I won't think to change the pace
Runnin' on the same mistakes
