

Shadow

Slow Pulp

I look out at the sky
Hold the sun in my heart
Just to make you bleed
Broke, I lie in the sea
You come looking for me
And we'll drown in the waves tonight

'Cause you were always hidden in my shadow
Hoping I would burn down another boat
I'm looking over (Over)
Over my shoulder (Shoulder)
Over my shoulder

I get in my car just to get where you are
'Cause you'd do it for me
But I don't think I like where we're going tonight
And I'm over and over it

'Cause you were always hidden in my shadow
Hoping I would burn down another boat
I'm looking over
(I'm looking over my shoulder)
Over my shoulder (Now)
Over my shoulder
Over my shoulder

'Cause you were always hidden in my shadow
Hoping I would burn down another boat
I'm looking over
