

Trade It

Slow Pulp

I know now
I'm not all that you wanted
You'll fool yourself
I'll take back all that you gutted

I'm almost out
Unlearning but it's not worth it
And I'll fall back down
Try to feel something much different

For it's honest
I'm all I've had
I'm coming to take it back
Trade it back for it
Trade it back for

Did you taste it again
The metal I think it's subsiding
My mouth's at its end
Trying to say it's love that I'm hiding

For it's honest
I'm all I had
I'm coming to take it back
Trade it back for it
Trade it back for

(For)
It's all that I'm asking
(For)
It's all that I'm asking
(For)
It's all that I'm asking

For it's honest
I'm all I had
I'm coming to take it back
(It's all that I'm asking)
Trade it back for it
(It's all that I'm asking)
Trade it back for
