Make You Love Me

Slow Runner

When you choose me, you start to lose me
When I get you, I start to regret you
When we're lovers, it's almost over-
You can hear my heart
In the dark
Like a bird, singing...

All I wanna do is make you love me (x2)

When I've used up the best you
And I'm breaking myself against the next you...
I'll think of your sweet and true love
It's another inner monologue I gotta ignore

I'm still a little too easy
Too insecure, cuz

All I wanna do is make you love me (x6)
