

Silver Screen

Slowdive

Strip the clouds, yeah
I thought the world would cry
Lose those tears
It's for the future now
Sugar lips
I always loved you
Words you wrote, they only made me cry

Watching the silver screen
It's the tip of a silver dream

Stranger animal
Where are your charms now?
Lost your mask, we found a smaller hill
Lose those tears
Although they suit your eyes
I can't believe you ever thought to cry

Watching the silver screen
It's the tip of a silver dream
Sister, you know you can't go on
Nothing left, it feels like this is gone
Watching the silver screen
Watching the silver screen
Watching the silver screen

Lost in words now
I'll make a brighter dream
I'll wish you well, Lord you wish it more
Your stars are smiling
It makes you so serene
Sugar lips, they make my fingers bleed

Watching the silver screen
It's the tip of a silver dream
Sister, you know you can't go on
Nothing left, it feels like this is gone
Watching the silver screen
Watching the silver screen
Watching the silver screen
Sister, you know you can't go on
Watching the silver screen
Watching the silver screen
Watching the silver screen
Watching the silver screen
