Forget You

Slowly Slowly

God knows I get off on pain
It's kinda how I've made my name
Praying for pouring rain
Something sunken to yank my chain

Don't have to write it down, it's in my head
These motherfuckin' bloodsuckers want me dead
I feel you breathing down my neck, but as long as I got penance
And got one breath left, I'll be ready, what's next

Treat me mean and keep me keen
Distill my self talk to unmet needs
Well I run on fuck all sleep
So come on, cut me somewhere I can't see
And I love to say take 2, but to be honest baby think a millions due
I need something borrowed something blue
I've gotta remember to try forget you
I've gotta remember to try forget you

I'm not the same
Watch me retrain my brain
Managing welcome change
Our predetermined patterns fade

Don't want to move along
Live in my head
These motherfuckin' bloodsuckers want to get fed
I feel you seething cherry red but as long as I got patience
I'll be paying my debts, 'til I'm feeling my best

Treat me mean and keep me keen
Distill my self talk to unmet needs
Well I run on fuck all sleep
So come on, cut me somewhere I can't see
And I love to say take 2, but to be honest baby think a millions due
I need something borrowed something blue
I've gotta remember to try forget you
I've gotta remember to try forget you
I've gotta remember to try forget you

What does today have in common
With yesterday
Nothing

Treat me mean and keep me keen
Distill my self talk to unmet needs
Well I run on fuck all sleep
So come on, cut me somewhere I can't see
And I love to say take 2, but to be honest baby think a millions due
I need something borrowed something blue
I've gotta remember to try forget you

Treat me mean and keep me keen
Distill my self talk to unmet needs
Well I run on fuck all sleep
So come on, cut me somewhere I can't see
And I love to say take 2, but to be honest baby think a millions due

I need something borrowed something blue
I've gotta remember to try forget you
I've gotta remember to try forget you
I've gotta remember to try forget you

I need something borrowed something blue
I've gotta remember to try forget you
I've gotta remember to try forget you
