

Michael Angelo

Slowly Slowly

Shaking like a kicked dog, eyes down hopes up
Looking for the devil, built up buttercup
Heading to the white room, spiral in a vacuum
I'm just gonna carry all of it

Yeah I'm an addict, I'm in turbo
I'm gonna change it all tomorrow
On the way to battle, dripping like a candle
I'm just gonna carry all of it

You got a good face for radio
Hear the howling winds in the comment section
I lined up the dominoes
I watch them fall in the right direction
I'll be okay, it's gonna feel good
When I catch that smile when I sit recalling
Gimme that hate, it's gonna feel good
Feels like flying while I watch you crawling

Tell the status quo that I'll be letting go
Of everything I ever said I'm Michael Angelo

Everybody hates me, I might join too
I don't want wanna miss out, I like fun too
Heading to the white room, spiral in a vacuum
I'm just gonna carry all of it

Yeah I'm an addict, I'm in turbo
I'm gonna change it all tomorrow
On the way to battle, dripping like a candle
I'm just gonna carry all of it

You got a good face for radio
