

Turn It Around

Slowly Slowly

Turn off the lights
Lie on your back
We're gonna listen to Jet Lag by Frank
Jeff said it right with lucky 11 on the debut
You don't look back, now

I got business, I'm gonna sink this
Watch me shape shift, shrink in the distance
I'm not ready yet, to lay down and die

One more time with feeling, I know
Such a shame we wrote
Two cold hearts on the same tombstone

I've stayed low, but I, think I'll get up now
I've been alone and I will again
It's on me to turn it around

So borrow me
And turn me blue
I'm gonna learn to dance now for two
I see the dead at 11:11 in my bedroom
I don't look back now

I got stitches, I wouldn't wish this
On my worst enemy, this is a vicious
Spiteful cycle, but you know I'm gonna try

One more time my demons, they stoke
All the fires I'm alone
Two cold hearts on the same tombstone

I've stayed low, but I think I'll get up now
I've been alone and I will again
It's on me to turn it around

I hide
I sleep in the day light
I walk through the landmines
I'll have my time again

I hide
I sleep in the day light
I walk through the landmines
I'll have my time again

One more time with feeling, I know
Such a shame we wrote
Two cold hearts on the same tombstone

I've stayed low, but I think I'll get up now
I've been alone and I will again
It's on me to turn it around

I've stayed low, but I think I'll get up now
I've been alone and I will again
It's on me to turn it around
