

Gorgeous

slowthai

Confused, overanalyzed
Bowtie and I always been categorized
Casual like nothing really matters like
Mistakes I made take a second try
Take bikes and ride 'till it won't ride
Burn it out it's mad how time flies
In the fire my life will highlight
Marley at the scores, phone box for a draw
Number one to my doors, 16 go to brook
Check drew go form where I first bun a zoot
Southfields check get a bike and its got
Toby field getting chased and we off
Blackthorn I first got locked
Two Z's of cheese never seen it before
Thought we had straps, five cars on us
Five man deep and we all in cuffs like

Five man deep and we all in cuffs
Five man deep and we all in all in
Five man deep and we all in cuffs
Five man deep and we all in like
Five man deep and we all in cuffs
Five man deep and we all in all in
Five man deep and we all in
Five man deep and we all in

Bob shot hot rocks in my joggers
Went boxing but I'm not no boxer
Northampton, yeah man I'm a cobbler
At time in my life man I went church
Air rifle for the pigeons on the verge
New life we were all flying birds
Moulton got terrorised
When I went Spring Boroughs and the pub got turnt
Lewis Del Mar man I miss my bros
Windoff ting trying to take their souls
Demanded they wouldn't let him out the cell
But I'm haps he's alive, he's alive and well
Shoutout the people up up north for real
Shoutout Jalil for the future ain't real
Know where I live you know you get, know you get, know you get shilled

Five man deep and we all in cuffs
Five man deep and we all in all in
Five man deep and we all in cuffs
Five man deep and we all in like
Five man deep and we all in cuffs
Five man deep and we all in all in
Five man deep and we all in
Five man deep and we all in

Used to stash food at Amy's
Chill, have a spliff walk Jasper
Lost a dog drunk on vodka
Responsibility another chapter
I'll do it plain-face, so obvious
Oblivious to a consequence

Never anonymous, known in my post code
Pit bike and a crossbow
You can get snookered at the cue club
Banging on the window
Doubled up now you're losing fifth bet deep
I begs you don't get lured in
Never had a mortgage, buy my house outright
Been the same since GameBoys and stick fights
Stabilize push-bikes, for your shineys jump off the push-bike
Tony jacked my You-Gi-Oh cards
I'll allow him he's a shook guy

There's like a memory of my stepdad when I was very young
He said to me that he got tickets to Liverpool, 'cause I used to love football, bruv
It was my dream, the first time, and he's like, "I'll take you," and like "yeah, we've got tickets"
So on the way there, obviously to Liverpool it's like a six-hour train
We're on the train, and I'm looking into my football magazine like I'm mad young
And I was like, "Dad, I swear if this team's name is first, they're at their home ground. If it's like West Brom versus Liverpool, it's at West Brom"
And he's like, "Nah, I don't know"
And I'm like, "Nah, it definitely is, yeah"
So then we had to hop off at West Brom, which was easier
But we got there bare early, so we there we just had to wait around
And I'm like, "Have you got a ticket?"
And he's like telling me, "Yeah, I've got tickets"
And then bruv this whole time, we're just looking for a tout, like a ticket tout to buy tickets to the game
Like for hours, we missed the first half of it
I always remember being so pissed because
That man lied to me innit after everything
If I knew we hadn't got the tickets I wouldn't have even bothered
But man built me up
