Stories high
High telling stories in story time
Same routine getting boring why
You do the same thing then you compromise
Moral compass always points wrong
Like I'm on the North Pole tryna make it home
When in Rome only drugs condone
Cus real men cry and thugs go home
Who am I? What I stand for
Tell myself you need to be a man more
Man up where ya handcuff, loss from pampers
Sandwich short of a picnic
Rough for your packed lunch
Life in a binbag quickly get wrapped up
Treated like a rodent
Fall in or just decomposing
No opinions no emotions

Falling, thinking I've been missing
No one's calling no one ever listens
Only falling away I'm missing
Miss falling why you missing
Thinking I've been missing
No one's calling no one ever listens
Only falling away I'm missing
Miss falling tell me where you missing

Only enemy is between your eyes
Tell everybody they can't read your mind
Therapy and they tell you lies
They only want more you ain't got no pies
Why you chatting like a snake you brier
Vampires come and take a pint
Tight rope and I walk the line
On the line [?]
Why you lost your spine
Spineless got 'em collared by the neck
Scruff gets rough just a scuff on the leg
He's sensing a bump on the head
I mean P why you bump me instead
Trust in me you're my best friend
I don't know if you're alive or dead
Fine line define my strengths
How far will you go if its not arms length

Falling thinking I've been missing
No one's calling no one ever listens
Only falling away I'm missing
Miss falling why you missing
Thinking I've been missing
No one's calling no one ever listens
Only falling away I'm missing
Miss falling
