

After Midnight

Slushii

All my love for you
Flowing in the room
Hoping that your gonna catch it when it all falls down
I can't see straight after half past eight
I'm high as the clouds

I don't have much guts
But I'll say this much
I've been thinking bout you almost every single day
You brush me off
And I push my luck
But that's ok

It's after midnight
We're stumbling under the street lights
Afraid to admit that it feels right
But it feels right
And I don't wanna see tomorrow

It's after midnight
We're stumbling under the street lights
Afraid to admit that it feels right
But it feels right
And I don't wanna see tomorrow

All my love for you
All my love for you
All my love for you
All my love for you

It's after midnight
We're stumbling under the street lights
Afraid to admit that it feels right
But it feels right
And I don't wanna see tomorrow

It's after midnight
We're stumbling under the street lights
Afraid to admit that it feels right
But it feels right
And I don't wanna see tomorrow
